

CASE STUDY FOR INTERACT INTERIORS LTD.

Client: Hilton Worldwide
Location: 4 Cadogan Square,
Glasgow
Value: £600,000

Interact Interiors were instructed by Jones Lang Lasalle to carry out extensive refurbishment works to the Hilton Worldwide Call Centre.

Programme:

14 weeks phased – works phased as refurbishment carried out in occupied offices and all phases completed within timescales

Key Project Details:

- Extensive refurbishment of call centre carried out whilst client remained trading and in operation
- Phasing of works maintained building continuity throughout project
- Close working relationship with contract administrator to ensure planning and execution of programme and phased works had no effect on the clients ongoing business issue
- Works included – strip out of existing offices, flooring, ceiling systems, mechanical services alterations to existing landlords system to meet the new clients layout, electrical rewiring of power and new lighting to suit new layout coordination with clients data contractor, installation of new offices, glazed partitions, door, ceilings, decoration and flooring
- Installation of bespoke finishes to canteen and reception including new desk

